Dear Parents and Guardians:

Today's focus in our Hispanic Heritage Month celebration was on Education and Knowledge. We discussed the importance of education in Hispanic culture and how it opens doors for future opportunities. Below are some ideas for continuing this theme at home:

At-Home Activity: Book Sharing

Take some time to read with your child about an inspiring Hispanic figure in history. This could be someone like Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor or astronaut Ellen Ochoa. Afterward, ask your child what they learned and how education played a role in that person's life.

Conversation Starter:

- Why do you think education is important? How can learning new things help you reach your goals?
- What's something new you'd like to learn about, and how can we help you get started?

These conversations will help your child understand the value of education as a tool for personal and collective growth.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Snyder
Superintendent
